CALIFORNIA CHEERS HOOVER AT HOMECOMING

Golden West Pays Tribute to Her "Favorite Son."

ALL-DAY EVENT
Republican Nominee in Parade at San Francisco.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., July 27.—The golden west held a belated welcome home celebration today for Herbert Hoover, the first Californian ever nominated for the presidency.

A dozen west coast cities, led by San Francisco, decorated their streets, hired bands and prepared to pay tribute to the state's new "favorite son." The celebrations were to start in San Francisco at noon and continue throughout the day, until Hoover gets back to his home here about dusk.

The Republican nominee will go to San Francisco on a forenoon train to participate in a parade through the streets of that city and in a reception at the city hall. Then, he will head a motor caravan down the coast, with stops scheduled at Daly City, San Bruno, Burlingame, San Mateo, San Carlos and Redwood City. His old home town, Palo Alto, will complete the circle of greetings.

On his motor tour, Hoover will visit the scenes of his youth and school days. He will travel the same highways he rode or walked along before he made his mark in the world.

There will be a dramatic background to the San Francisco celebration. It was from the city of Golden Gate that Hoover went forth, 30 years ago, to seek his fortunes in Australia. He laid aside a nest egg in the Antipodes, returned a year later, married the girl of his heart and sailed again from San Francisco on a honeymoon to a new job in the Orient. He returned time and again and each time went forth to new laurels.

Fourteen years ago, he left to win world renown. It was in 1914, that San Francisco sent him to Europe to gain the participation of European nations in its Panama fair. While abroad, Hoover was plunged into war activities, passed through a host of great offices and today, he returned a wealthy man and holding the greatest honor his party could bestow upon him.

BURGLARS LOOT THREE STORES IN DIAMOND; FLEE WITH $75

Haberdashery, Shining Parlor, Confectionery Robbed.

BREAK TRANSOM
Cash Registers are Emptied After Midnight.

Less than $75 in cash was obtained by burglars who entered three stores in the Diamond business district last night. The places ransacked were the Olympic confectionery, Morris Altman haberdashery and Royal Shoe Shining parlor.

Entrance to the Olympic confectionery, Market street and Summit lane, was made through an unlocked rear window. About $50 was taken from the cash registers in the store.

The burglars smashed a transom above the show windows to gain entrance to the Altman store in Fifth street. A small amount of change was taken from the cash register.

From the Altman store the intruders entered the shoe shining parlor through a connecting door which was bolted on the Altman side. The cash register was carried from the hat cleaning establishment into the Altman store. About $10, of which $5 was in bills and $5 in change, was taken.

Patrolman William Lister and Chief McDermott investigated.

The three jobs were committed after midnight, police believe.

MONTOUR ROAD GIVEN O. K. BY U. S. EXAMINER

Interstate Commerce Commission Aide Approves Plan.

BOARD WILL ACT

Judge Billingsley, Lisbon, Advised of Action.

First indication that the Interstate commerce commission may sanction the plan of the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western railroad to build a branch line connecting Smiths Ferry and Youngstown, came today when Judge N. B. Billingsley, Lisbon, vice president of the company, was advised by Chief Examiner Burnside that he had approved the application.

Request for permission to build the line now goes to the entire membership of the commission for their approval. Hearing on the application to construct the 38-mile road was held at Washington in May. It was indicated at the close of the hearing that the commission's decision might be delayed until fall or after the first of the year.

The New York Central railroad is reported to have withdrawn its objections, although the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroad companies, which operate trunk lines into Youngstown, are said to be standing pat in their opposition. The Erie railroad took no part in the hearing.

The Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western railroad is said to be controlled by the Montour railroad. Building of the line would give Youngstown steel manufacturers a cheap freight rate on coal shipments from western Pennsylvania fields, it is said.

SIGN TARIFF PACT IN CHINA

United States Grants Peking Duty Autonomy.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—A treaty annulling existing tariff treaties between United States and China, and substituting complete tariff autonomy for China was signed in Peking on July 25 by American Minister J. V. A. MacMurray and T. V. Soong, minister of finance of the Chinese Nationalist government, the state department announced today.

The Likin tax, now in effect, was also abandoned under the terms of the treaty. The provisions of the treaty become effective January 1, 1929, if ratifications are exchanged by that date, or four months subsequent to such exchange after that date.

PEKING, July 27.—The new Chinese-American tariff treaty which was signed on Wednesday by T. V. Soong, nationalist finance minister and United States Minister John V. A. MacMurray, was published today. Announcement of the signing was not made until today. The treaty grants China tariff autonomy so far as the United States is concerned.

"The nationals of neither of the high contracting parties shall be compelled under any pretext whatever to pay within the territories of the other party any duties, internal charges or taxes upon their importations and exportations other or higher than those paid by nationals of the country or by nationals of any other country."

Article two provides that the treaty, done in both English and Chinese texts, shall be interpreted in the sense expressed in English in the event of their being a difference of meaning between the two texts. Article two also provides that ratification shall be in accordance with the respective constitutional methods of the two countries.

Wanted, Rain.
If Trouble, Then What?
Balfour and the Pee-Wees.
The Lead Pencil Shape.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review.]

EXCESSIVE heat injures Italy's crops; religious processions and prayers for rain in many places. That must give Mussolini a sort of help, less, indignant feeling.

BUT men, in time, will find a way to control rainfall. Italy's necessity may persuade Mussolini to look into it. Absence of microscopic dust in the atmosphere is one cause of drought. It should be easy, with airplanes, to supply missing dust—preferably some hydrophilous substance, like pulverized lime.

IT is proposed to unite Germany and the fragment of Austria after the joyous carving up by the Allies. France and other nations don't want a bigger, more powerful Germany.

French newspapers, remembering the American peace treaty recently invented, asks: "What would America do should events precipitate trouble?"

America, in all probability, would do something foolish. But at least ninety out of one hundred million Americans will hope, if events precipitate trouble in Europe, that America will know enough to mind its own business and let Europe attend to her business.

LORD BALFOUR celebrated his eighteenth birthday, and the Prince of Wales, congratulating him, says Balfour was a member of the cabinet "eight years before I was born, and his golf handicap at 80 is at a lower level than mine is every likely to attain."

The prince might have added that Lord Balfour's is an older English family than that of the prince's. Balfour descends from Lord Burleigh, prime minister under Queen Elizabeth.

BRITISH newspapers praise Balfour's long, honorable career, and work done for his country.

His contributions to science are important. Some of them would shock our fundamentalists. The best practical work he ever did for Britain was in connection with the United States treasury.

HE DID another neat piece of work when, at the Washington conference, England being unable to compete with us in ships, Balfour persuaded our statesmen to junk our finest battleships, some not finished, thus saving Britain expense. Balfour is a statesman; ours are politicians.

PARIS fashions for this fall demand "the silhouette." The woman whose outline closely imitates that of a lead pencil will be envied by others that stick out in front, back or at the sides. A low, flat and slight circular full.

Republican National Committee Will Not Pay Bills of New "Dry" Units in Fall Campaign

Organizers Outside Regular Channels of Anti-Saloon League Prepare to Make Plea for Funds.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The Republican national committee will not finance the multitudinous new "dry" organizations already springing up over the country for action in the presidential campaign. This was made clear by officials of the national organization who today were engaged in completing the loose ends of their campaign upon which National Chairman Work and Treasurer Nutt will definitely fix a budget.

Reports have reached Washington that many professional "dry" organizers whose scope of activities has been outside of the regular channels of the Anti-Saloon league were preparing to descend upon the city with an urgent plea for funds.

Among the most prominently mentioned of these many organizations are the anti-Smith Democrats which emanated from the recent conference of southern "drys" at Asheville. Unless there is a change of heart on the part of campaign leaders it is unlikely that any of these organizations will be permitted to dig into the millions raised for the national committee.

At the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon league, it was indicated by officials, in the absence of General Superintendent F. Scott McBride, that no such request would be sent to Chairman Work.

The Anti-Saloon league probably will go its own way in its efforts to defeat the Democratic national ticket, it was said. The details of the fight against Gov. "Al" Smith may be handled by state units.

$50,000 PAYROLL IN MINE ZONE

NELSONVILLE, O., July 27.—Miners in this section today had received nearly $50,000, representing the payroll of the mines working on the open shop basis in this section for the last two weeks. This is the second payroll that some of the miners have received since the inauguration of the coal strike 15 months ago.

GEN. COXEY WILL PUSH PET BILL

CLEVELAND, July 27.—Win or lose, General Jacob S. Coxey, Massillon, who led an "army" to Washington 34 years ago, says he will appear before the next congress to continue his fight to have a bill passed providing legal tender money without interest "secured by community non-interest bearing 25-year bonds for public improvements."

General Coxey is a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination. He made a tour of Cleveland's industrial districts Thursday.

Political Pressure Hits Federal Radio Commission Plan to Silence 200 Stations

Officials Admit That Not More Than 75 of 682 Broadcasting Places Will be Closed.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—So much political pressure is being directed at the Federal Radio commission to prevent the much needed wholesale reduction in broadcasting stations that there apparently is little chance for the government to "clear the air," and offer the listening public good reception next winter.

Officials admitted today that the move, contemplated months ago, of silencing more than 200 stations, that the other lanes might be cleared of menagerie yowls, has been cast into the discard and that it is improbable that more than 75 of the present 682 stations on the air will be closed.

The commission announced today the elimination of 35 broadcasters, who failed to make an appearance at the hearing called to give them an opportunity to show cause why they should not be dropped. Four other stations voluntarily surrendered their licenses.

Out of the 160 or more stations cited and warned that they might be silenced, all but the 35 appeared before the commission, most of them backed up by senators and congressmen, and showed that their retention on the air was necessary to the public good. Comparatively few of these will be dropped.

The new allocations which have been under discussion since the summer of 1925 will not go into effect until after September 1, since all station licenses have been extended to that date. Political pressure is being brought to bear to prevent any wholesale shifting of stations and rearrangement under the equalization amendment enacted by the last congress.

It is now apparent that congress was not fully aware of the effect of the equalization provision when it was adopted. Efforts of the commission to put the plan into effect have been thwarted and there is a belief that the opposition, which unsuccessfully sought to prevent this piece of legislation, held unworkable by some members of the commission, may have sufficient strength to bring about its repeal at the next session of congress.

Hospital Building Fund Bequest

Recognizing the need of additional hospital facilities here, the late William W. Harker, pottery manufacturer and bank director who died a few months ago, made a bequest of $25,000 for the East Liverpool City Hospital association in his will which was filed in probate court at Lisbon yesterday.

Payment of the bequest, which is to be made upon the death of the widow of the philanthropist, is conditional upon the hospital association having available $175,000 to be invested in constructing and equipping a new building or an addition to the present structure in West Fifth street. A 20-year time limit is set for compliance with the conditions of the proffer.

This bequest by the late pottery owner, whose interest in the East Liverpool institution was shown, three years before his death, when he installed at his own expense a 70-station radio for the entertainment of patients, should provide a nucleus for a hospital building fund.

Hospital accommodations here are limited. Not infrequently the capacity of the institution is taxed, with the result that many patients go to Pittsburgh and Cleveland. Erection of an addition or a new building in the not far distant future shall be necessary.

Ordinary revenues do not permit a building fund, for the expense involved in caring for charity patients is no small item. The hospital, of course, shares to the extent of $4,000 or $5,000 annually in the tax levy, but this is intended to meet the deficit between income and expenditures.

If the East Liverpool City Hospital association expects to profit from the generosity of the late Mr. Harker, whose many contributions to charity during his lifetime were kept secret at his request, a citywide campaign for funds is the only hope.

Sign of Hot Campaign

It has been so long since the last meeting of the charter members of T. R.'s Ananias club that memory of that event fades. But one is refreshed to pick up a copy of his newspaper to find emblazoned there before his eyes that "Smith Roars His Reply to Editor and Clergyman."

Then, on the other hand, one reads into the story and discovers that Bill Allen White, the Emporia editor, "Rolls Up His Sleeves and Prepares to Give Battle." Still farther on it is declared the New York governor "Strode Up and Down, With Anger in Every Movement."

And also it is discovered that "Editor Plays Tammany Democracy," while asserting that "Smith Belittles Intelligence of American Electorate."

It may be explained here that a New York evangelist and reformer, and Editor Bill said something about Governor Al being a defender of saloons and such in pre-Volstead days. But who cares how the row started? The fact is there is a sizable row under steam in national politics—so let's go.

When a presidential nominee can get all steamed up over a political assertion thus far in advance of election day it presages a red-hot campaign. Perhaps there will be something worth while in the forthcoming drive for Hoover and Smith—something to drive away the summer lethargy.

"Dog Day" Season

This is the season of the year popularly referred to as "dog days." Any protracted hot spell—it usually falls later in the season than the current moment—revives talk of "dog days," and brings out sporadic warnings against mad dogs and swimming in pools which are not entirely fresh, and a lot more of the same.

But now comes Dr. C. P. Robinson of the state department of communicable diseases, with the declaration that prevalent belief that dogs are more susceptible to rabies during July and August than during other season of the year, is an unfounded myth. Records of Dr. Robinson's department show that not one fatality due to rabies from dog bites resulted in July or August in the last two years.

Rabies are fatal. Medical science has not discovered the immediate cause of hydrophobia, but it has been learned that all dogs which are afflicted with rabies have a growth on their brain. And it also is declared any warm blooded animal is susceptible to rabies.

However, the added warning is issued that it is well to safeguard against mad dogs and other agencies which are apt to communicate diseases or bring about attacks which will result in wounds that may terminate fatally. This is particularly true during the so-called "dog days," in the midst of which we now find ourselves.

Industrial Insurance Leader

Ohio does the largest industrial casualty insurance business in the world. This cryptic declaration comes from the office of the industrial commission—a board of three which handles the workmen's compensation fund.

There are practically 800 claims filed daily with accounts annually. It is in control of virtually 53 millions of dollars. It is responsible for paying out money on disability claims which arise in the industries of the state, all of which, when they employ more than a minimum number of workers, are of necessity party to the fund.

Thus through the medium of workmen's compensation—a form of insurance which compensates workers for injury while at work, for loss of time due to this injury, or sickness contracted during the actual discharge of duty—Ohio has forged ahead of not only all other states in the union, but is far in the van of commercial insurance firms which handle health and accident risks.

Employers have come to realize that the workmen's compensation is a dividend paying form of group insurance. Through the safety-first campaigns of the industrial commission, accidents are reduced to a minimum, and as a consequence, the labor loss is slashed more than 75 per cent.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27.—Treasury officials are watching with keen interest the developments in the fantastic and romantic affairs of Mme. Tschakowsky, the young woman who claims to be in reality the sole surviving child of the ill-fated Nicholas II, czar of all the Russians. Asserting that she is in fact the Grand Duchess Anastasia and miraculously escaped when the Russian royal family with its entourage of servants was murdered by Soviet authorities at Ekaterinburg, July 16, 1918, the Grand Duchess is laying claim to the personal fortune of the czar, now held by foreign banks.

The American treasury's interest lies in the fact that Russia owes a heavy debt to the United States, on account of war loans and relief loans. This debt the Soviet government has refused to pay or even to recognize as an obligation and this attitude is responsible in part for refusal of the United States to recognize Russia and resume diplomatic relations.

There are various tales concerning the sums of money which the czar placed on deposit in foreign banks, including American banks, before the Russian revolution. Should legal proceedings, now developing as the result of Mme. Anastasia's (or the Grand Duchess Anastasia's) claims, result in a holding by the courts that the czar's deposits should revert to the state, in the absence of heirs, then the United States might find ground to present its own claim and perhaps go so far as to seize such deposits as it can find.

This branch of the developments depend on whether or not Anastasia can prove that she is the czar's daughter, the true Grand duchess and heir to the nebulous fortune. Her claims have been strongly defended and equally strongly attacked. Mrs. William B. Leeds of New York, who has been caring for Anastasia ever since she reached America, is the former Princess Xenia of Greece and believes the girl's story. She has many other supporters. On the other hand evidence has poured forth that she is in fact the daughter of a Pole, probably a peasant, who is either suffering from an aberration or is attempting to perpetrate a gigantic fraud. One of the baffling circumstances of the mystery is that photographs of the Grand Duchess Anastasia, taken before the royal family's murder, and photographs of Mme. Tschakowsky bear a striking resemblance.

The immediate proceedings hinge upon a sum of $2,500,000 held by London banks and declared to have been deposited there by the czar. But should that claim be made good, vastly greater possibilities open up. A sum as great as $100,000,000 has been reported as deposited in American banks by the Russian czar. This figure has been declared by many Russians, including Czarist sympathizers, as greatly overestimated but even ten per cent of the amount would make a tidy nest egg for Anastasia—if she could get it.

London banks practically admit holding large sums deposited with them by the czar but, unless Anastasia can prove her claim beyond peradventure of a doubt, intend to keep them until a royalist restoration in Russia is past all hope.

American banks are quite silent on the matter, as are banks in Canada where it has been reported the czar also made deposits. Obviously they are following the same policy as the London banks, preferring to await the issue in Anastasia's case before making any revelations as to the sums, if any, entrusted to their keeping. Both British and American banks of high standing had branches in Russia in the czar's time and it would not have been difficult to effect the transfers.

The total capital sum lent, through the treasury, by the United States to Russia amounted to $187,729,950. This was a straight war loan and the treasury still holds Russia's evidences of indebtedness for it. After the revolution, the United States instantly stopped all further war loans to Russia, although congress had authorized sums which would have been advanced had not the Soviet debacle occurred. Subsequently, relief money to the amount of $1,871,547 was advanced, bringing the total Russian debt up to a principal sum of $192,600,297. With accrued interest added the Russian debt to the United States may now be calculated at well over $200,000,000.

If it should develop, as the outcome of the affair Anastasia has stirred up, that the czar did actually have some $100,000,000 on deposit here which should revert to the state, the United States conceivably might recoup nearly half of the Russian debt at one stroke.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Thoughts while strolling: That stretch of 5th Avenue sidewalk sprinkled with diamond dust. The bus driver who looks like Fontaine Fox. Otto Kahn, a Mannheim, Germany, boy who made good in the city. Constance Collier with a griffin. The Metropolitan club. It looks grand in "Who's Who."

More modernistic whatnots in Saks windows. A priest comforting a distressed woman on the side lawn at St. Patrick's. George Creel, the "Uncle Henry" of Colliers. And husband of Blanche Bates. The legless beggar with the Boston dog that pulls him along in a cart.

Joe Humphries, the leather-jumped fight announcer. Those new hotels blazing with light at night, but practically empty. Women's heels are getting lower. There's a Gay Ninety touch—a bicycle rack. Boys with flowing ties who play picnics in orchestras.

Bon voyage fruit baskets $20. On the East Side you can open a fruit store for that. Those doll-faced simpering girls who dress like twins. And demurely practice the oldest profession. Venerable croquet players on way to Central Park—each with a sun parasol.

Nothing so intimidating as a wild-eyed motorcyclist. A bowling alley opens next to a hotel. That's nice. Every trunk store seems to be "selling out." The town is full of green shirts. Why do men with big feet wear small derbies pulled down to their ears?

And why are tow-legged men always running after street cars? Crooked stocking seams. Walt Roesner, the Capitol orchestra leader. A man pushing a baby carriage. Just like they do in Brooklyn. Strike up the band—a taxi driver just told a fare he had plenty of change. Harry Reichenbach, the silver-haired press agent.

A street hawk selling colored clothes line. The Brighter Back Yard movement arrives. Wonder what Columbus Circle used to look like. The sombre dignity surrounding every church—even those on Broadway. Who remembers when a telegram was a dispatch?

A gentleman in New Rochelle writes that in the Bronx there is a street has only one house.

The incurable Broadwayite— and Broadway in this sense is not a street but a state of consciousness—thinks he would be miserable away from it. He is like a bear in a western zoo placed in a large enclosure, but day in and day out walks a few steps forward and backward. The animal grew up in a cage and cannot realize there is more room in the world.

Some time ago I wrote Mall Street was the shortest street in New York. An anonymous correspondent who calls me a "liar"—how in the world did that get out?—says the shortest street is EDGAR, near Rector. EDGAR street has only one house.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

Nothing can be much worse than to lose the power of locomotion or to become helpless in the use of arms and hands. Such an affliction can come as the result of an injury, but also it may be the advanced stage of an affliction called "Progressive Muscular Atrophy." The "living skeleton" in the circus sideshow is the victim beneficiary of this disease. He is capitalizing his misery.

In the beginning of this disease, there are pains in the arms and shoulders. At first the patient may think he has a slight touch of rheumatism. Then he notices an unusual, tired feeling, or a sense of numbness somewhere.

A little later there is atrophy or wasting of one or more muscles. The trouble may be in the hand, perhaps it becomes difficult to move the thumb. Gradually the other muscles of the hands are attacked. Then the forearm, the arm and shoulder are attacked.

This one-sided process may have taken several months. Then it jumps over to the other hand and progresses on that side in exactly the same way. You see the disease is well named. Not only is it a disease causing atrophy or wasting of the muscles, but also it is progressive in its effects.

The leg muscles are not so commonly involved, but after awhile they are seized, and walking becomes an effort. All the muscles are soft and flabby. The weakness of the tissues is shown by excessive sweating.

In rare cases the speech is affected because the neck muscles are involved. For the same reason it may be difficult to swallow.

The progress of the disease is not always steady and uniform. There may be periods when it seems as if the ailment was cured. Then on it comes again, even if marked improvement had been noted.

The trouble is due to degenerative change in the spinal cord. The disease extends along the cord and, as it progresses, the various groups of muscles supplied by the spinal nerves become involved in the wasting process.

While the disease is met from early youth to old age, it is most common in the active period of life, from twenty-five to forty or forty-five.

There are many alleged causes. It follows the various acute infectious diseases. Typhoid fever has been noted particularly as a causative factor. Any infection from within the body, as, for instance, tonsil involvement or bad teeth, may be responsible.

Extreme overwork, overexertion, overuse of any set of muscles, all these are possible factors. It has been known to follow childbirth. Lead poisoning and inflammatory rheumatism and other causes. Syphilis must be included in this list.

In the treatment it is essential to seek the cause. If this can be traced to bad teeth or tonsils, or to some other removable condition, it is easy to deal with it.

Unfortunately, it is difficult in most instances, to find a causative factor. Then the case must be dealt with on general principles. The simple rules of hygiene must be used upon the patient. Fresh air, good sleep, avoidance of all disturbing and disquieting things are vitally important.

Electricity in various forms has been recommended. The attending doctor must direct the treatment but faithful adherence to his instructions is essential to success in treatment.

Answers to Health Questions.

H. J. Q. What treatment do you suggest for nervousness?
A.—First of all build up the general health and in this way benefit the nervous system as well as the entire body. Outside recreation and vigor

French Courts Clean House.

Six French lawyers who have been especially active in the operation of the Paris divorce mill for wealthy Americans have been severely dealt with, in the efforts of the specially appointed tribunal to put an end to a situation that has been an international scandal. Three of these attorneys have been suspended from the bar for long periods and three were severely reprimanded, all of which is undesirable publicity for those concerned. One well known New York attorney was also censured.

Glaring examples of irregular and farcical justice have been brought to light, most of which involves the divorce of Americans. French law was openly flouted, one attorney having submitted 45 false documents, including depositions. In 167 American divorce cases, the law applying to residence was complied with in but three. One party obtained a divorce without leaving New York.

It was American money that made possible this travesty. Poor French men and women were unable to do what these Americans did, regardless of the merits of their cases. It is small wonder that a vigorous protest from honest native attorneys resulted. Easy divorce—too easy, in fact—is possible in this country, because of lax laws, and the spectacle of wealthy Americans "playing horse" with the French courts was far from good for the amity between the two nations. The French resented it and decent Americans generally were ashamed of it.—Columbus Dispatch.

Once Overs

By J. J. Mundy.

Can You Stand Up Under Appraisal?
How do you act under appraising observation?

Do you get nervous and lose command of yourself?

Are you so uneasy that you cannot think clearly? Do you cover your embarrassment by talking too much and too rapidly?

If so, you say little of value and make a poor impression.

But why so uneasy?

If you know you have been straight, your reputation is as good as the majority, at least, no one should dissent from you.

If the other fellow scrutinizes closely, do the same to him.

He may not have as much as you to be proud of, but he may have himself under better control.

There are men who derive pleasure from the discomfort they can cause others, and there are women who delight in disconcerting others.

Still others are baffling under the guise of fearless audacity.

But if you are truly great you do not have to indicate it.

The bigger the man the less he seeks to impress you.

Indeed, he does not have to.

He is big because he has natural ability and does not have to make an effort to appear what he is. Copyright, 1928, International Feature Service, Inc.

From the Outside Looking in Completely absorbed in business problems, you sometimes lose that constructively critical outside viewpoint that is so valuable. That is the reason why the counsel of a bank in touch with various lines of business is so helpful.

Bankers do not necessarily have greater foresight than other business men; but their contacts with different lines of industry give them a composite view of conditions that everyone doesn't get.

Banks are distributing centers of information regarding business. The contacts of Potters National bring our officers information that may throw new light on your affairs. It will pay you to maintain a connection with this progressive bank.

Consider Revision Of Loan Resolution

Councilmen, Other City Officials Await Official Notification of Proposed Veto by Mayor W. L. Fogo.

In view of Mayor W. L. Fogo's expressed objections to the phraseology of the resolution authorizing the city of Wellsville to borrow $10,000 to pay for storm damage repairs, it was indicated today by city officials that the wording of the resolution would be changed and the legislation re-enacted at the next council meeting, unless the municipal lawmakers then decide to approve the resolution as it stands, over the mayor's veto.

In the opinion of the executive, the resolution is illegal because it authorized the city engineer to spend the money instead of the service department.

However, other city officials today expressed the opinion that the matter could easily be adjusted.

At any event, it will be necessary to pass an appropriating ordinance before the money can be used, even when the resolution authorizing the loan is approved.

Ordinance of this nature will be drafted at a meeting of the ordinance committee and possibly the finance committee of council, at a conference prior to the next meeting of council on Tuesday, August 7.

His wife did not understand why he should be so ill tempered in the morning and worried because she thought the fault might rest possibly with herself. That made her nervous and irritable and it seemed as if all the joy had left this home until one day the man bought a tube of Shavoline which made shaving a pleasure, brought joy to the home and they both lived happily ever after.

Recommend Two-year College Course Before Practicing.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 27.—The American Bar association, now in convention here, today was on record as favoring a proposed federal law which would permit oil companies to develop fields through cooperative enterprises.

Gurney E. Newlin, Los Angeles, who is slated for the presidency of the association next year, led the fight for the bill and obtained its approval by a vote of 275 to 74.

The association steering committee prevented another skirmish over the proposed constitutional amendment requiring a two-year college course as a requisite to practicing law. Oscar C. Hull, Detroit, a member of the executive committee, obtained consent to submit the amendment to a referendum of the association membership.

Oppose International Copyright.
The report of Edward S. Rogers, Chicago, chairman of patent, copyright and trade mark law section, proposing that the United States should enter the international copyrighting convention, was not adopted by the convention.

Opposing the report, O. Raymond Bennett, also of Chicago, said the measure would make Americans liable to wholesale prosecutions by Europeans.

The report on amended criminal laws by Justin Miller, of Los Angeles, after a stormy existence in committee, was accepted without debate by the convention.

OBREGONISTAS SEEK HARMONY IN OWN RANKS

Unity Urged in Behalf of Slain Chief's Policies.

BAN LABORITES

"Mexico Requires Peace Based on Justice," Says Leader.

MEXICO CITY, July 27.—Leaders of the Obregonista party were today making every effort to reconcile all its various factions into one harmonious group determined to carry on the policies of the assassinated President-elect Alvaro Obregon.

Representatives of various groups of the party from all parts of the country met here last night and definitely approved this program of harmony. Deputy Aurelio Manrique, former governor of the state of San Luis Potosi, presided at the meeting.

As explained to the delegates by Deputy Antonio Diaz Soto y Gama, Agrarian leader, the program calls for co-operation between President Calles and the other leaders of the Obregonista party and the elimination of all Laborite officials from all government offices.

The program also calls for the election of Obregonista party members exclusively to the incoming congress and for the designation of a man definitely identified with the policies of Obregon for provisional president.

Soto y Gama struck the keynote of the meeting in his speech when he declared that Mexico "required peace—peace based on justice."

For the first time in the history of Mexican politics, a woman took a prominent place in the proceedings. This woman, a delegate of one of the factions closely allied with Soto y Gama, was given the floor and cheered when she rose to urge the adoption of the program.

He trained at Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., and sailed for overseas June 15, 1919. While advancing against the enemy in the Lys offensive on October 31, 1918, he was wounded by a machine gun bullet. COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Setting August 2 as the next date for a meeting of the United Mine Workers of America with the Ohio coal operators, Lee Hall, Ohio district president of the union, today issued invitations to every coal operator in the state to attend the meeting for the purpose of negotiating a wage scale for the Ohio miners.

The statement in part read: "After a thorough investigation of the present situation affecting the coal industry in Ohio, with the representatives of the miners and operators, participating at the preliminary conference held July 26 at Columbus, Ohio, we hereby extend an invitation and ask your company to send a representative to a joint conference of miners and operators of Ohio to be held at Columbus, August 2nd, for the purpose of fixing a satisfactory wage scale."

"Any wage scale that may be agreed upon," the statement continued, "will be retroactive as of August 1, 1928."

"In the interest of the largest industry of Ohio and those depending upon the same, the operators and the miners and the public, we respectfully request your cooperation and attendance at the Aug. 2 meeting," the statement concluded.

ness, set in on the left side, all the rest lead pencil." That's what you must look like, ladies. Get your rubber suits, and begin to perspire—unless you have common sense.

FOR some, worry is a necessity. Here is something PERMANENT to worry about.

The earth is losing its speed. In the well-organized procession around our sun, the earth falls back.

The loss is slow, only one hundredth part of a second each century. But time is long, the world is more than a thousand million years old, and will last hundreds of millions of years longer.

A hundred part of a second every hundred years amounts to a great deal in ten million years. Figure it out, and WORRY.

LILLIAN LEITZEL, "queen of the flying trapeze," and Alfredo Cordona, brilliant gymnast, are married. They will continue in the circus, but they will NOT be the father and mother of circus prodigies. Their little boys probably will not be able to turn even one back somersault, and the girls will be afraid of the flying trapeze or any height. Wise nature thus prevents specializing through generations. Abraham Lincoln's son was president of the Pullman Car company.

MR. RASKOB retires absolutely from General Motors, not having time for anything but politics. And General Motors wants its giant concern free from any political partisanship. Stock buyers agree with that idea apparently. General Motors stock went up Wednesday.

THE biggest life insurance policy—$400,000.00—is placed on 200,000 General Motors workers. Including sickness, life and accident, it seems overwhelmingly big. But $400,000.00 is only about one-tenth the value of General Motors stock.

Two hundred thousand workmen certainly represent more than 10 per cent of a concern's total value.

22 PASSENGERS ARE UNHURT AS BUS IS FIRED

CAR TOWED IN

Automobile Damaged When it Skids on Street.

Twenty-two passengers on an east-bound Pittsburgh-Detroit motor bus, escaped injury when the bus took fire after a gasoline line broke as the coach was ascending the Lincoln highway hill south of Rock Camp, seven miles north of here, at 6 o'clock last night.

The blaze was quenched with a fire extinguisher which was borrowed from a nearby home. The ignition system of the bus was destroyed. McElroy Brothers towed the motor car to East Liverpool.

An automobile owned by Vance Cornell, Ravine street barber, was damaged when it skidded on the slippery street near the intersection of St. Clair and McKinnon avenues shortly before 7 o'clock this morning. Cornell, who is camping near West Point, said he was coming down the hill slowly, but when he applied his brake the motor car skidded. Two wheels were demolished when the machine struck the curb in front of the C. L. Signal store. Cornell and another occupant of the car were not hurt.

PAROLE TWO MEN IN OHIO SWINDLE

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—William H. Chatfield and George Beazell, both of Cincinnati, convicts in the Ohio state penitentiary and alleged promoters of a million dollar stock swindle at the Queen City, today were ordered paroled by the state board of clemency. They will be released August 15, the board announced.

The men were sentenced on embezzlement charges for terms of 9 to 10 years each and were admitted to the penitentiary Jan. 5, 1926.

David Wise, former president of a building and loan association at Cleveland, who was also sentenced for embezzlement, was also ordered paroled. The parole is to take effect Sept. 15. Wise was sentenced by the Cuyahoga county court for a term of from 5 to 10 years. He was admitted into the institution in June, 1925.

Twenty-seven other prisoners were also paroled by the board.

D. F. C. AWARDED CAPT. M'READY

DAYTON, O., July 27.—The distinguished flying cross has been awarded by congress to Capt. John E. M'ready, member of the first crew to successfully negotiate a transcontinental non-stop airplane flight, according to word reaching here today.

Presentation of the cross to the veteran aviator will take place at Wright field, near here, tomorrow.

The award was made in recognition of the first non-stop transcontinental airplane flight from New York to San Diego in April, 1923. The aviator has also set two endurance records, though both are surpassed now. M'ready also made two altitude records, the last being 38,000 feet, which was made in January 1927, but has since been exceeded.

Nab Bandit Suspects

McDermott wired Denison police today asking them to ascertain whether the suspects will return to Ohio of their own accord. If they refuse, McDermott said, extradition papers will be sought.

Investigate Other Jobs.

McDermott intends to question the two prisoners regarding the holdup of E. K. Bennett, Jr., West Fifth street, on the night of July 8 as he was driving along the Campground road, and also Edward Dunning, Sherwood man, in the early morning of June 24 as he was on his way to East Liverpool.

Baker's parents are said to be living in Chester, while Powell came here from Wheeling where he is said to have relatives. Both men, police say, have been living in East Liverpool for several months.

Risner and his son were sitting in their automobile which was parked in Summit line near the First Methodist Protestant church on the night of July 16 when two bandits approached them. With a revolver pressed against his back young Risner was forced to drive to a country road near Ross Meadows where he and his father were robbed of $120 and their motor car taken.

Blessing of Nets Revived.

After a lapse of a century, "blessing the nets," an ancient custom, was revived at the opening of the present salmon fishing season on the River Lee, Ireland. The ceremony was held at Blackrock, where many of the fisherfolk reside. A fleet of 34 boats, each manned with a crew of four, assembled at the pierhead, where a crowd had gathered. The service includes a reading from the Gospel of St. John, which tells of the blessings of the nets in the Sea of Galilee. Priests, preceded by cross-bearers and acolytes, imparted the blessing, while the fishermen, with bare heads stood in their boats.

Educational, documentary and artistic films are to be produced by a co-operative society that is being organized at Geneva, Switzerland.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, July 27.—Substantial advances were made during the forenoon today in a number of stocks, particularly Radio Corporation which gained 4 3/4 points to 175 1/4 and Wright Aero which jumped six points to 158. Other strong issues were: Curtiss Aero up 3 1/4 to 105 3/4, American Can up 2 5/8 to 91 1/8, American Smelting and Refining up 2 7/8 to 202 1/2 and Atlantic Refining which advanced 2 3/4 to 147 1/4.

Practically all other stocks were strong, gains ranging from a fraction to 1 3/8 points. Corn products advanced 1 3/8 to 76, General Electric 1 7/8 to 150, Chrysler up 1 1/2 to 75 7/8, Hudson Motor 1 1/4 to 81 1/4, Studebaker 1 1/4 to 71 1/4 and Anaconda up 7/8 to 67 7/8.

Bethlehem Steel was one of the few stocks to show weakness, declining 1/4 to 56 3/4. Other steel shares continued strong, however, United States Steel advancing a point to 141 7/8.

Strength in the market was due to the influence of bullish sentiment created by the maintenance of the 5 per cent New York bank rate and a reduction in brokers' loans during the week ended July 25. As this decrease was accomplished in a period of rising stock prices it was interpreted to mean that further progress had been made toward clearing up congestion stimulated brisk advances in the principal industries.

ATTORNEYS ACT

Defense Lawyer Calls Hoppe "Champ Criminal."

TOLEDO, O., July 27.—Formal notice that counsel for Charles (Stanley) Hoppe, now confined in the county jail here with a death sentence hanging over him for the murder of his wife's cousin, Dorothy Sielagowski, 7, intends to carry the case to the court of appeals was filed in common pleas court here today.

The condemned man manifested little interest in this move by his attorneys, having apparently assumed a fatalistic attitude.

Hoppe was described as "the champion criminal of all time, with no apologies to Hickman or other famous criminals," by Larry Bevan, one of the defense attorneys during the trial, in an address to the Vernon McCune post of the American Legion here yesterday.

Bevan indicated he was satisfied with the death verdict in the case and thought no time should be wasted in appeals or clemency pleas.

Roundup of Nashville, Tenn., Patients Under Way.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 27.—Efforts were pushed today to round up patients of the Central state hospital for the insane who fled when fire last night destroyed the main building of the institution, freeing 1,272 inmates.

After many hours search during the night, less than 100 were at large early today. Most of the patients huddled near the scene while the fire was in progress. About 30 employees of the hospital narrowly escaped death before the fire was discovered on the roof.

A heavy rain added to the confusion in the darkness as officials and guards sought to assemble the patients.

TILDEN DEFEATS RENE LA COSTE

ROLAND GARROS STADIUM, PARIS, July 27.—Bill Tilden, America's ace of aces, scored one of the greatest victories of his career on the courts today in winning the first singles match of the Davis Cup challenge round from his arch-rival, Rene LaCoste, of France, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6 and 6-3, but in the second singles Johnny Hennessey, the smiling Irish lad from Indianapolis, succumbed to the wizardry of Henry Cochet's inspired stroking. The scores were 5-7, 9-7, 6-3 and 6-0.

GOV. AL SMITH RESENTS STORY OF "FAG" STAND

Sponsored Anti-Cigaret Bill in Assembly, Foes Say.

30 YEARS AGO

Democratic Nominee Goes to New York City.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 27.—Governor Al Smith has no objection to being characterized as a foe of the Volstead law but he showed deep resentment today because he had been pictured as a crusader against the cigaret in the days when he was first elected to the state assembly.

Thirty years ago, according to published disclosures, the governor introduced in the legislature an anti-cigarete bill. The measure was the most drastic ever drafted. It not only called for the punishment of cigaret manufacturers but provided that any person convicted of rolling his own cigaret could be sentenced to the county jail for six months.

With the first draft of his notification address virtually completed, Governor Smith was to go to New York today to confer with Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland.

Cutting on Long Island.

Accompanied by members of his family, the governor will leave New York tomorrow for Good Ground, L. I., where he will spend several days swimming, playing golf and resting. This is expected to be the only vacation he will get before his notification ceremony on August 22.

The meeting with Ritchie is expected to be the most important of any of Smith's pre-convention campaign conferences. The governor is said to be planning to ask the Maryland executive just what sort of a campaign should be conducted in the border states and whether there is any foundation for some of the claims made by Republican leaders about political conditions in these states.

Although Governor Smith has insisted that the details of his active campaign are to be mapped out by National Chairman John J. Raskob and Senator Peter G. Gerry, chairman of the advisory committee, it was reported here today that he would ask Governor Ritchie to take the stump for him in several of the border states.

The fact that Ritchie is one of the chief foes of prohibition lends color to the conference he will have with Smith.

Reports that strong sentiment is fast developing against him in some of the southern states are not worrying the governor, according to his close friends. The governor, however, is understood to have passed the word along to his advisers that it might be well to conduct some sort of a campaign in the south just to make doubly sure that nothing unexpected will happen down there on election day.

The governor's confidants were still chuckling today over the way he took former U. S. Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma to task for the latter's announcement that he could not support Smith because of his Tammany affiliations and his wetness. The governor or called attention to the fact that four years ago Owen pleaded for Tammany support for the president nomination.

"This is a typical Smith comeback and the country will see more when the campaign really gets under way," said one of the governor's advisers.

COX AND DAVIS JOIN SMITH IN 1928 CAMPAIGN

Democratic Nominees of 1920 and 1924
Enlist.
SHOULDER ARMS
Gov. Ritchie of Maryland Also in Front Ranks.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Democratic campaign managers today answered the incipient "bolt movement" in the south with the announcement that two national standard bearers of previous years had enlisted "for the duration of the war" in the front ranks of the aggressive Smith-Robinson forces.

They are James M. Cox, of Ohio, and John W. Davis, of West Virginia.
Democratic presidential nominees of 1920 and 1924, respectively.

Davis told Chairman John J. Raskob at the national headquarters here that he is subject to call for any part the national executive committee may select for him in the campaign.

Cox, who came to New York primarily to see the Tunney-Heeney financial disaster, was a caller at headquarters today. Raskob indicated clearly that he had a major role in the campaign selected for the former Ohio governor, but declined to reveal the nature of the job.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was Cox's running mate in 1920, is a member of the executive committee.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, who was himself a presidential candidate against Smith in the Houston convention, was a third party stalwart to enlist in the campaign today.

Ritchie Subject to Call.

"My first job will be to carry Maryland for Smith and Robinson," Ritchie said, "but I am subject to call for duty in the national campaign where-ever I can be of service."

Governor Smith invited Ritchie to
New York for "just a talk" today.
Smith is scheduled to arrive from Albany late this afternoon. He will take dinner with Ritchie and then hurry to Good Ground, L. I., for a long weekend far from the dizzy din of presidential politics. Smith will occupy the estate of the late Charles F. Murphy, former chief clerk of Tammany Hall, for his rest. There will be "no politics" there, Smith has announced emphatically. Governor Ritchie plans to return to Baltimore tonight.

Drive for Labor Vote.
The Democratic drive for the labor vote was launched today under the direct supervision of George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Pressman and Assistants union, and one of the founders of the American Legion.

Berry will undertake to organize a national labor committee, with representatives in every state to carry the Smith appeal to the millions of unorganized workers. The campaign among union workers will be conducted chiefly through central trade bodies.

"This is one time wherein capital and labor can join hands upon the political field," Berry said in his acceptance of the appointment from Chairman Raskob, a director and vice-president in General Motors.

Dog at Funeral of Actress.
The chief mourner at the funeral recently of Miss Gladys Ffolliott, a prominent actress in England, was "Delphie," a Scotch collie, who was the favorite pet of the star. Miss Ffolliott was exceptionally fond of dogs, possessing five. "Delphie" was so named because her mistress, when playing in the original production of "Outward Bound," found her one wet night outside the stage door. After the funeral the dog was taken to spend the rest of her days with a friend of Miss Ffolliott who has a farm near Norwich. "Starr," another of the ac-trous' pets, accompanied "Delphie" to the country.

St. Mark's, Venice, Restored.
St. Mark's of Venice, Austria, is the first of the three national cathedrals of Europe to be restored. Workmen have just completed their task of 20 years in making it safe for use. The cathedral was built in 1033, and decorated and faced with marble by the Venetians after the fall of Constantinople. The structure was very weak, however, and large cracks appeared in the wall. Workmen have been filling in the cracks, repairing the vault and replacing the damaged stones and mortar with concrete. The other cathedrals being restored are St. Paul's in London and that at Mayence, Germany.
Baseball in the Tropics.
Baseball, written with a style as fervid as the tropical sun under which the game is played, is served to readers of the "Tropical Sun," the first and only English language newspaper published in Venezuela. In reporting a recent game at Cabimas, the sporting editor wrote, "Mr. Hubert and his cork screw delivery burst across the pitching firmament of a local ball-dom in a blaze of glory at Cabimas Field this afternoon, and left a trail of bruised, battered and baffled batters in his wake. One by one they failed to connect. Before they found out what it was all about the game was all over and the Lagos had tightened their hold on the flag by a 2-0 victory." Then follows a detailed story of the game in the same style.

The new dam, which will raise the pool level of the Ohio several feet at the mouth of the Beaver river besides creating a pool approximately 17 miles in length, will be patterned after the Emsworth locks.

Mrs. Brennenman of Canton, O., is a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell.

Longevity Town Discovered.

Following the recent discovery that 10 of the 100 inhabitants of Wroxall have celebrated their golden wedding, the tiny town is declared to be the healthiest and happiest in England. As girl and boy and as man and wife the males have all worked together on the 2600-acre Wroxall Abbey Estate. The couples are: Mr. and Mrs. E. Gold, aged 82 and married 63 years; Mr. and Mrs. Infield, 82 and 88, married 58 years; Mr. and Mrs. Kibbler, 75 and 76, married 54 years; Mr. and Mrs. Showell, 78 and 74, married 54 years; Mr. and Mrs. Tarver, 69 and 68, married 51 years. Together they have had 33 children, 69 grand children and seven great-grandchildren. Each family has been brought up on from $2.50 to $3.75 a week.

New "Drunk-Test" Wanted.

That tongue twisters are not accurate tests of whether a person is under the influence of liquor is being claimed by officials in England. Police authorities think that the tests should at least be standardized. This would include the physical methods of walking a chalk line or touching the right toe with the left forefinger. Tongue twisters are not in official favor because even the mildest tippler, finding himself in a police court, might stumble over such phrases as "The sea seashell and it sufficeth us," or "Methodist Episcopal" or even "Truly rural." The case is cited of a man who was afterward proved to be drunk insisting on singing, which he did accurately, "When my father lathers, he lathers rather free; I would rather lather father than father lather me."

Woman Has Leper Colony.

That a Miss Riddell, of England, had lived 36 years in a leper colony which she founded in Japan without she or any of her doctors, nurses or attendants contracting the disease, has just been reported. The report, made by Edith Gitting Reid, an English writer, says that Miss Riddell conducts the institution, the Hospital for the Resurrection of Hope, at Kumamoto, on self-governing Christian lines. She planted many of the barren acres with trees and flowers, and encourages all able lepers to work in the gardens. Many of the patients are without hands or eyes, but are surrounded by beauty, love and intelligent care.

Champ Tunney Retains Title By Eleventh Round Knockout

Heeney Dies With Boots On, Game to Final Punch

Battered Through Ropes in Tenth, Tom Tries to go on But Loses as Referee Forbes Stops Gene's Onslaught.

By Davis J. Walsh.

NEW YORK, July 27.—"I have fought the good fight; I have kept the faith," said Heeney in his stirring lay and, if he had it to do all over again today, he probably would have centered his lyrical attention upon Gene Tunney's successful defense on his heavyweight championship at the Yankee Stadium last night.

"His head was bloody but unbowed."

Another Heeney masterpiece of graceful rhythm. And just as though the poet had had a reporter's eye cocked knowingly over the edge of the ring, his eulogy to the indomitable told the story in full of Tom Heeney's courageous but inevitable collapse in the eleventh round.

Battered to the floor at the end of the tenth, he lay outside the ropes, unheeding, a bloody wreck. Picked up by his seconds and toted, feet drooping, to his corner, he was loved and swathed and slapped and badgered into a sense of consciousness between rounds. Then the bell and he was sent forth again, this time to die the figurative death of the ring fighter who, knowing that he must lose, chooses to do it as a game man should and must.

Tunney Proves Himself.

Tom Heeney died the figurative death of a technical knockout last night. But today they can't say that he didn't die with his boots on nor that the feet he held were not flush with the floor, holding him gallantly erect at the end.

What, meantime, of the man who fought the good fight, who kept the faith? Gene Tunney did both. No longer may they call him the "Champion of Jack Dempsey." No longer is it possible to question his right to sit upon the throne of all boxing and rule his subjects as might please his monarchial fancy. Tunney was every inch a champion.

Tunney, viewed from the first row ringside, fought the very good fight last night. And he kept the faith, indeed—the faith to his friends who all along have maintained that their man was more than a champion by mere force of circumstance.

What heavyweight champions have we had who could guarantee a more workmanlike performance against a challenger who surprised some of the skeptics with the efficacy of his bid? Dempsey and John L. undoubtedly would have made a quicker and less messy job of it. Jim Corbett would have boxed with sharper, more definite skill. Old Jack Johnson wouldn't have let Heeney hit him at all and Fitz probably would have outslugged such a challenger in a few rounds.

Champ Takes Eight Rounds.

Tunney took eight of the eleven rounds fought, two were even and one went to Heeney. He made his mistakes, as even good champions sometimes do, and almost paid dearly for it but, above all else, he is a sensible man and when he discovered that he couldn't afford to make the other man's fight, he boxed the challenger's ears right off.

Once only did Heeney have his moment. It was a brief one and unimportant, but it was rife with significance in the third round.

Tunney, with the mistaken zeal of a man who wants to confound his critics, tried to play the other fellow's game in the first three rounds and barely held his own for two of them.

They were having at it, too, late in the third when Heeney suddenly jogged home with a right across to the jaw.

Great chance, that, but Heeney simply stared in wonder and when he finally decided that something further should be done about it, there was nothing further to do. Tunney was completely himself by the time his challenger rushed in with his follow up and even the fact that he was clipped with another right harder near the bell failed to make further headway upon Gene's vulnerability.

The round was Heeney's his only one. The incident marked the last effective gesture he was to make during the fight.

Heeney, blinking and bobbing and sidling uneasily away, managed to weather the storm in the eighth without visible trouble but, undoubtedly these punches were having their cumulative effect. The challenger offered slightly more fight in the ninth but took a cruel beating. In the tenth, it was seen that the end was not far off.

Bell Saves Tom in Tenth.

Tunney continued to snap his stinging left to the face, bring up his right to the chin, curl his left inside to the liver and otherwise buffet his man. He next shot three stiff lefts to the chin and, with each, Heeney's tortured head was snapped back on his shoulder blades as though on a hinge. He staggered back, clearly goggle-jogged, from the last one and Tunney, quick to sense the beginning of the end, leaned in with a storm of lefts and rights that finally drove Tom through the ropes.

The bell intervened to save the challenger. He came again for the eleventh, flinging his right with dying zeal, but Tunney, isly cool with the deadly certainty of the master, slipped the punch and went out to finish it. For upward of two minutes and a half he buffeted Heeney about with his short, burning but not altogether lethal punches. Another one might have done for Heeney; two or three more surely would have made the job complete. But Referee Forbes wisely would have no more.

As Rickard was obligated to Tunney for the reputed matter of $525,000, Heeney $100,000, the stadium authorities for 10 per cent and the government for 30 per cent of the gross, it won't take a certified public accountant to figure his profits.

ROUND BY ROUND STORY OF FIGHT

ROUND 1—Grimly determined, Tunney whipped a solid right to Heeney's jaw. The challenger ducked and swarmed into Gene with short left and right hooks to the chin that drove the champion to the ropes. Heeney shot over a solid right to the head on the break.

Sticking to his right hand, Gene crashed two rights on Heeney's jaw but a sweeping left hook almost bowled the champion from his feet. Tunney was out fast, stabbing now with his left, but Tom beat both hands like a tattoo on Tunney's chin as they swapped in close.

Gene ripped a solid right to Heeney's head but it never moved the challenger and Tunney was on the run as Tom ripped after him, both hands flailing to the head. There was a bad bruise over Tunney's left eye at the end of the round.

ROUND 2—Tunney was obviously startled at Heeney's fierce offensive, and started boxing the challenger. He shot his left to Heeney's head but could not keep the bulldog of the Anzac away.

Tunney blasted left and right into the sturdy head of the Hard Rock without causing a flicker of Heeney's eyelashes. Gene swapped with his challenger and they ripped left and right hooks to the chin in a furious exchange.

Tunney sparred as Tom ripped in. When Gene's left hook dropped low, Tom mentioned it, and Gene smiled and asked forgiveness. A second later they were crashing each other all along one side of the ring in a slugging exchange of head clonks that rocked both on their heels. The bell

AT NEW YORK—Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight champion, scored technical knockout over Tom Heeney, of New Zealand (11).

Big Boy Peterson, New Orleans, drew with Jimmy Byrne, Louisville, Ky. (6).

Johnny Grosso, Mount Vernon, N. Y., stopped Francisco Cruz, alleged heavyweight champion of Portugal (1).

George La Roca, New York, won decision over Herman Heller, German heavyweight (6).

Ad Warren, former university of North Carolina football star, won decision over George Hoffman, former national amateur heavyweight champion (6).

Chester Loses to K.T.K., 6-4

Howell's Relief Pitching Factor in Potters' Win.

CALLED into the box in the fourth frame with his mates trailing, 3 to 2, Cracker Howell turned back the Chester City league club with a solitary blow for the final three frames and his club, inspired by "Cracker's" winning ways, drove in four counters to give him a 6 to 4 victory over the visitors last night at Columbian park.

It was the Kates' first win of the second half but it boosted them into fourth place behind Wellsville in the league standing.

Jack O'Brosky, former slush ace for the Potters, tried out his ailing soup-bone last night, starting against Chester, but it kinked suddenly in the fourth with two gone and the veteran was compelled to leave the box.

His brother, Andy, went to the hill lock but after issuing two walks and being nipped for a scratch single, was replaced by "Cracker" Howell, who baffled the opposition swatters to such an extent with his combination submarine and overhead delivery that only one hit was the total damage from there in.

The Chester club displayed plenty of hitting power previous to Howell's advent, and, while collecting eight safeties in the first four frames, was unable to get more than three runs out of them. Two double plays, one of which Howell started himself, aided the K. T. K. pitcher considerably, especially the two-ply killing in the seventh inning. With the new moon beaming overhead and the lamps along Pennsylvania avenue lit like Japanese lanterns at a lawn fete, the Kates leading, 6 to 3, and Chester's murderers' row swinging impatient bats in Howell's face, anything might have happened in the gathering dusk of the final frame.

But what did happen was mostly in the Kates' favor, as far as scoring was concerned, although the visitors sneaked a run out 5th.

Marshall and Connors, first two men up, both were safe on infield miscues and the stage was set for a Chester rally.

But Cox, third man up, hit into a double play. Bayley grabbed his grounder, heaved to second to get Connors and Coleman pegged out Cox at first.

The double out was under way. The third infield error of the frame put Cebula on first. In the darkness it was difficult to play the ground balls accurately. Jack Vanaman eluded one at Bayley at short and Eddie assisted to Coleman to cut off Cebula for the third out.

George Cebula reeled off two spectacular catches in right field, or rather the territory back of second. He made both catches on the dead run and in both instances robbed Eddie Bayley of what looked like hits as they left the bat.

Cronin Chinas Are Scheduled At Wellsville

New Cumberland Club Booked for Saturday.

Manager Roy Nicholson today announced the booking of the Cronin China club of New Cumberland for a tilt Saturday afternoon at Nicholson Field.

The Cronin Chinas have developed a fast ball club this season and have been taking over some of the valley clubs with regularity.

With Easton scheduled to work to night, against Turk Nash at Wellsville, it is likely Nicholson will obtain the services of some other league pitcher for the Saturday game.

"Lefty" Gillis of Toronto who won both ends of a double header from the Wellsville club Decoration day, will pitch for the Cronins. The game is scheduled for 3:30.

Laughlin Defeats Madison

West Virginians Hang up Fifth Straight Win.

HOMER LAUGHLIN hung up its fifth consecutive victory of the second half with a 7 to 2 conquest over Madison Billiards last night at Newell.

Out of a four-game schedule they faced at the outset of the week, the West Virginians have won three and need only tonight's return conflict with the Billiards at Columbian park to make a clean sweep. Dugman started the drive with a win over the Kates. Wednesday night Curly Evans turned back Chester and last night Billy Watson, outfielder, took his turn on the firing line and, aided by the slugging of his mates, came through with a win.

Chamberlin's home run, the swatting of A. Densmore who poked out three hits in as many times up, and catches in the outfield by Morris and Dugman were the highlights.

The Billiards were first to tally and it took only one hit. Chamberlin's homer, to do the trick in the second inning. The visitors' advantage was short, however, as Laughlin counted three times in their half of the same frame. Finley singled to left, went to third as Roberts and Dugman were putting Simcox out at first and wandered home on Dugman's sacrifice fly to Morris in center, Morris making a pretty catch.

Another Laughlin runner completed the circuit in the fourth. Mosser was given a walk, went to second on Martin's walk and scored on Randall's double.

The Billiards got their final run in the fifth. Morris tripled to right and reached home on a wild pitch.

Two Laughlin runs in the fifth ended the scoring. Dugman, Merchant and Bubin singled in succession. Dugman scoring. Merchant attempted to steal home but was out at the plate. Bubin counted on A. Densmore's single.

Homecoming of Italia Crew Far From Dreams.

FACE INQUIRY
Travel by Train From Norway to Italy.

ROME, July 27.—When Gen. Umberto Nobile and his fellow survivors of the Italia disaster arrive here from the Arctic early next week, probably on Tuesday, they will slip into Rome quietly. It will be a homecoming far from their dreams when they set out three months ago.

Instead of the plaudits and medals they had expected they will arrive to face a stern inquiry at the hands of Premier Mussolini to determine if negligence was responsible for the disaster on May 25 when the dirigible was wrecked in a storm between the North Pole and Spitzbergen.

The Nobile party is enroute here today from Narvik, Norway, where they landed from the supply ship Citta di Milano to travel the rest of the way by train.

Two members of the expedition are dead and six others are missing.

IDENTIFY RIVER VICTIM AS NURSE

CLEVELAND, July 27.—Neighbors today had identified the body of a woman, found in the Cuyahoga river here Wednesday, as that of Mrs. Frances Monroe, 45, a nurse who lived in East Cleveland. Following this identification, detectives visited Mrs. Monroe's apartment and reported discovery of a piece of cardboard upon which had been written: "Please notify my sister, Mrs. A. B. McDonald, by telephone at McKeesport, Pa." Written in a feminine hand, the note for the present caused a murder theory to be discarded, police declared. It was at first believed the woman had been slain.

PEKING SEES RECOGNITION IN U. S. NOTE

America Ready to Negotiate With Nationalists.

LEADERS HAPPY

Japanese Diplomats Call Move "Bolt From Blue."

PEKING, July 27.—America's note offering to enter into treaty negotiations with the victorious Nationalists and pledging American aid to restore Chinese tariff autonomy was regarded by the Nationalists today as virtually de jure recognition of the Nationalist government by the United States. America, the Nationalist leaders said, is the first foreign power to award such recognition. The leaders were highly elated over the American offer, saying it would put the National administration in a strategic position to negotiate with other nations for revision of treaties.

Japanese diplomatic quarters described the note as "a bolt from the blue."

It was pointed out by diplomatic representatives of the other powers that the proposed American-Chinese treaty would be of no practical value so far as restoration of tariff autonomy is concerned until accepted and ratified by the 16 extra-territorial signatory nations. These are the powers which agreed to foreign regulation of Chinese tariffs and put their agreement into treaty form.

As there are two factions in the Nationalist party the course which the Chinese may follow is uncertain. The conservatives probably will favor acceptance of the American offer while the radical element may oppose it.

The principal implement and machinery exhibit at the recent Commercial Fair of the west at Nantes, France, was that of American products.

Canton Man Found Dead.

CANTON, O., July 27.—Poor health and despondency over failure to find work is believed the cause of the death of H. L. Heckman, 45, here yesterday. He was found dead in his home by relatives, who said he had used a double-barrelled shot gun.

Fire Causes Hot Words.

Following the blaze that destroyed Malson Grosse, Menton, France, has a war of words over the effectiveness of its fire department. The mayor's confession that the water supply is inadequate brought forth warm replies. One critic says that a municipality which cannot control so vital a public service as its water supply should "go to the most remote part of France and bury its head—or heads" if not to a "region more tropical." The hose is said to have "10 leaks per meter," while the fire department band is declared to look well at festivals and should play Handel's "Water Music" or "Keep the Home Fires Burning" at conflagrations. Another suggestion is that the municipality prohibit all conflagrations, under penalty of a heavy fine, or best of all, see a film showing "what an American fire-brigade can do."

England's birth rate has resumed its upward trend, according to this year's statistics.

You'll Like Sugardale bacon

Because it fries so crispy and sweet

SUGARDALE BACON is cured dry.

That's what makes it so different—so much sweeter and tastier—than ordinary bacon.

That's why it fries to a crispy golden brown without the annoying sputtering and spattering of wet-cured bacons.

Start tomorrow with a breakfast of this really better bacon. You'll find it on sale in all Sugardale stores as this week's Sugardale Special.

And don't forget that bacon is much more than just a breakfast delicacy. For example, the next time you have some mashed potatoes on hand, try this:

Drop one egg into the potatoes. While mixing in the egg add a dash of paprika and just enough flour so that the potatoes can be rolled into small balls or cakes. Then wrap with a strip of Sugardale bacon, securing it with a toothpick. Broil until the bacon is browned and crisp.

3 DEAD, 15 HURT IN TRUCK FIRE

Victims Burn to Death When Motor Vehicle Upsets.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., July 27.—Three children are dead today and fifteen others are recovering from burns and other injuries sustained when a motor truck in which they were riding upset on a curve and caught fire here last evening. The three victims, imprisoned underneath the overturned truck, were burned to death before they could be extricated. One boy was identified as that of Myron Stratton, of Manchester, Conn.

The truck was carrying 40 children. They were returning to their homes from tobacco plantation in Ellington where they worked.

MAN SLAIN AS HE OPENS DOOR

CINCINNATI, O., July 27.—Webb Hogan, 33, Sandfordtown, Ky., painter, was shot to death in the rear door of his home here Wednesday by an assassin hidden in a cluster of rose bushes, police here were informed. No motive could be learned.

According to his widow's story, they were awakened by a noise at their back door and Hogan arose, taking a pistol, opened the door and fired into the air. A shot was fired from the rose bushes. Hogan dropped dead at his wife's feet. Sandertown is 10 miles from Covington, Ky.

Carlsruhe Museum Given Manuscript By Ambassador

CARLSRUHE.—Jacob Gould Schurman, American Ambassador, has presented to the Scheffel Museum in Carlsruhe the manuscript of his translation of Scheffel's famous poem, "Alt-Heidelberg," which the ambassador read on the occasion of the conferring of an honorary doctorate on him by the University of Heidelberg on May 5.

Dr. Schurman will spend some days in Heidelberg and the nearby Schwetzingen in the middle of July, and will attend the opening of the festival plays in Heidelberg Castle on July 21. He will also be made an honorary citizen of Heidelberg.

At the same time a number of American physicians will be in Schwetzingen, famous for its centuries-old cultivation of asparagus to study the effects of the "asparagus cure."

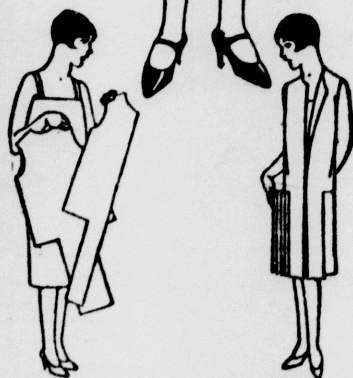

Ohioan Held in Slaying.
ZANESVILLE, O., July 27.—Clarence Barton, 60, proprietor of a local boarding house, was lodged in Muskingum county jail here awaiting arraignment before Common Pleas Court Judge C. A. Ribble where it is expected a charge of first degree murder will be preferred against him as the outgrowth of the slaying of George Briggs, 54, late Wednesday afternoon.

Distinctly Smart.

You'll be attracted by its youthful slender line and indefinable air of distinction. It affects coat styling with open front, finished with vestee and inset section in skirt, with killed plaits at each side. The front sections are caught with button trimming just below waistline, with belt starting at either side of front, to give the idea of panels, to lengthen the silhouette. It features the new sleeve puffs. Style No. 3401 is attractive, made of printed silk crepe, faille crepe, crepe satin, jersey, shantung, printed Celanese voile or georgette crepe. Pattern in sizes 16, 18 years, 35, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. Price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred).

In ordering patterns clip the design shown or order by number. Write your name and address plainly, enclosing 15 cents and mail to Fashion Department, East Liverpool Review. From 7 to 10 days are required for delivery of patterns. For 10 cents additional you can obtain our Spring Fashion Magazine.

INVESTIGATION has shown that on numerous occasions other hams and bacon have been substituted when Premium was ordered.

This can no longer be practiced.

To protect the conscientious dealer

Russian Movie Actor At Age of 52 Years Sets Hammer Mark

MOSCOW.—A 52-year-old movie actor, Christakoff, who plays grandfather and cripple roles for the Soviet Kimo trust, established a new Soviet hammer throw against competitors half his age. Christakoff threw a 15-pound hammer 163 feet in the Moscow district amateur track and field meet at which district entrants to the "Red Olympiad," the Spartan games were chosen.

A question about his eligibility to the international Spartan games has been raised because of his profession. It is claimed that as the games were organized as a sort of workers' Olympiad, Christakoff, who is not technically a worker, cannot compete.

Three Trapped 10 Weeks.

Three men were trapped for more than 10 weeks in the famous Lonsdale Lighthouse at Land's End, Scotland, during the recent storms. The men ordinarily do a month's duty at the lighthouse, but rough weather and stormy seas made it impossible to get a boat to traverse the mile and three-quarters of land. A relief boat waited in Sennen Cove with a stock of supplies, but was helpless during that time. The lone victim of the men to keep the light burning was not even relieved by radio, for their receiving set had been sent to shore for repairs just before the storm broke. All three were in good spirits when rescued.

Japan may abolish its business profits tax.

French Jibe Channel Fakers.

French holiday makers of Menton poked fun at the English colony during the recent carnival by displaying a float alluding to the London woman doctor who "swam" the English channel in a boat. The float showed the figure of the woman holding on to the leg of a giant duck by whose aid she was apparently getting across the channel. As duck in the French language is "canard," and the English instantly recognized what that word meant, in English, the hit was met with much laughter on the part of both the French and the visitors. On the float was also a boat, pushed by the duck, the manager of the swimmer, the weather experts, and the man who had certified that she had performed the feat, watching her do it through a blind telescope.

Says English Girls Fading.

Suggestion by Senora Herrera, the charming wife of Senor Luis Herrera, head of the Uruguayan mission in London, that English girls are not so beautiful as before the World war, has caused a shock and a lively discussion in England. Senora Herrera is a leader of society in South America, and was in London before the big conflict. She recently declared that the girls then were shy, but womanly, modest, but clever, and they had gorgeous complexions with rich waves and curls in their hair. In her opinion they were the most beautiful girls in the world. At their best, she said, modern girls are just pretty and live the lives of acrobats. The remarks have caused much argument and some antagonism among both male and female champions of English girls of today.

Canton Faces War Over Auto.

With the advent of the automobile the transportation situation in Canton, China, promises a war of its own. In the city of 870,000 population and only 38 miles of modern streets, the 14,000 licensed ginricksha pullers have just about driven sedan chair carriers out of business, and the coming of the automobile has caused the "ricksha" men to form a union in self defense. Canton has only 420 registered passenger automobiles, besides the 80 official cars. Of these 364 are owned by parages and rented to the public, constituting Canton's taxi service. Nine of every 10 of these machines are American-made. The organization of the coolies into a union is expected to result in a demand for higher wages to "ricksha" and parage men that may result in a bitter transportation war that will make the revolution seem tame.

Sebring

The last three weeks of the playground will be crowded with activities leading up to the last week which will be featured by a program of sports and games. Miss Mildred Howell, director at the South Side grounds, is taking a week's vacation at Seveakeen lake. Her place is being filled by Miss Katherine Whitney. In two weeks it is planned to hold a tag day drive to secure additional funds. Expenses of operating have been more than expected and it will be necessary to raise a moderate amount to cover the loss.

School of instructions for the Scout troop committee from various churches opened Tuesday evening at the Legion hall with Fred Thomas, Youngstown, scout executive, in charge. Instructions in scouting will be given for two months, in charge of Thomas as a part of enrolling Sebring boys in the Mahoning valley scout council.

An interesting talk on his home state, Wisconsin, was given at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening at Oliver's Inn by the Rev. Stephen Lembright of Neeshville, Wis. Rev. Lembright is a former Sebring resident. Rev. S. K. Pollock of Sharpshurh, Pa., father of Superintendent S. H. Pollock, was present and spoke of his visit to Minneapolis, Minn., as Rotary delegate to the international convention.

Miss Margaret Brimlow and Edwin Senior, both of Sebring, were married at Youngstown, Monday. Dr. W. H. Hammaker, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church performed the ceremony. Mr. Senior works in the pottery at Sebring, while Mrs. Brimlow is a graduate nurse. She was a member of the 1927 class at the Alliance City hospital. After a trip to Niagara Falls they will live here.

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Gibson left Thursday for Lakeside where they will spend a 10-day vacation. They will also attend the Bible conference which will be conducted at that time. Next Sunday morning and evening Rev. Stephen Lembright, of Wisconsin, who attended camp meeting here this year, will fill the pulpit for Rev. Gibson.

Miss Hilda Terry, East Indiana avenue, has returned from a trip to Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mrs. Thomas Skillington of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting at the home of her brother, William Davis, sr., of Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Seeley, Miss Millicent Seeley and Bert Hershey, of Wadsworth, Akron, visited recently with Mrs. Seeley's nephew, Thomas E. Smith, local Western Union operator.

Railway Men Await Spirit.

While police have broken up some of the spiritualistic meetings at Marburg, on the Austrian Yugoslav frontier, railway men who were most fervid are still expecting the reappearance of the leader who committed suicide to prove that he could return to earth. He was Johann Schaperl, a ticket collector, and his body was found hanging from a crossbar of a window in one of the railway depot waiting rooms. A farewell letter told that he had committed the act to bring a report "from the other side" to their next seance. He begged his wife and seven children not to mourn over his departure, as they would see him again. Police prohibited the seance at which Schaperl's spirit was expected.

BANCROFT WINS HUMOR, PATHOS IN 'DRAGNET' ROLE
IN "BIG NOISE"
 Now George Bancroft comes along with "The Dragnet." Here is as tense and vital a melodrama as has ever been put on the screen. It opened last night at the Ceramic theater.
 The story hinges on the underworld theme but this time it attacks the problem from the standpoint of the men who risk their lives every day to preserve society. Bancroft takes the part of a hard, fearless detective lieutenant who walks into danger with a laugh. "Shoot first and aim straight," is his motto.
 The role fits this new dynamic star or he fits the role, like a glove. His personality seems to fairly leap out at one from the screen and it is easy to understand the fear with which the crooks are supposed to regard him.
 Next only to Bancroft's superb performance is the work of Evelyn Brent and William Powell. Miss Brent has given some great characterizations recently and her portrayal of the lawless creature, who recognized and loved a real man when she saw him, in "The Dragnet," is without question one of her best. Powell is his usual suave, sinister self. He is leader of the crooks and a very convincing one. Fred Kohler also gives an excellent performance as Steve the Greek, and Leslie Fenton has a colorful part as Shakespeare, the literary detective.
 In a quicksilver mine in Peru a church has been erected 480 feet below the surface of the earth.

Egg Laying Contest Gets Big Record at Connecticut College

STORRS, Conn.—The international egg laying contest at the Connecticut state agricultural college here had developed 197,467 eggs when thirty six weeks of competition had elapsed, and the contest directors were looking for new records because this year's group of hens was running 11,350 eggs above the previous record for the time.

And foreign hens were up in the running, a pen from Catforth, England, holding first place among White Wyandottes and a pen from Ayton, Ontario, second place among the same breed.

Hens are here from practically every state along the northern border of the United States even including Oregon and Washington. This is the seventh year the contest has been on, and a new year of the contest starts in November.

The first agricultural show in Tunt since the World war was recently held and proved to be the most successful ever held there.

2-ENGINE CRAFT

Hopes to Eclipse Record of Steamer Mauretania.

LONDON.—Carrying a crew of six, and piloted by Miss Marion Barbara Carstairs, a well-known English motorboat racing enthusiast, a powerful motor craft is expected this month to attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean in less than three days.

The boat, which has been built with the greatest secrecy at Cowes, has engines of 2,000 horsepower. It is believed that the craft will average about 40 knots an hour, and the object of the trip will be to eclipse the record of the Mauretania for a trans-Atlantic crossing of 4 days 13 hours and 41 minutes.

"It is quite possible to cross the Atlantic by motorboat," Miss Carstairs declares, "but as yet no one has tried for a record."

With Four Motors.

Accompanying Miss Carstairs will be a naval officer as navigator, two mechanics, a wireless operator, and her own engineer and right hand man, Joe Harris.

The craft will be equipped with four Napier marine engines developing 500 horsepower each. A special system of ventilation has been installed in the small cabin of the boat, in order to ward off the heat that the powerful engines will generate.

The trans-Atlantic voyage is not the only venture Miss Carstairs has in prospect for this year. She is having two other motorboats constructed, sleek racing craft, with which she will attempt to regain the International trophy for Great Britain at the Detroit, Michigan races on September 1, 3 and 4.

Expects Record.

The new motorboats will be christened Estelle I and Estelle II. Not only has Miss Carstairs financed the design and construction of the boats, but she also plans to pilot whichever one proves fastest at the Detroit speed trials.

She believes that she will easily attain a speed approaching 90 miles an hour, and there are optimists among her friends who even talk of 100 miles an hour.

Death Rate High Among Divorced Men of Germany

BERLIN.—Divorce means flirting with death.

This is proved by German statistics just published.

For each 100 married men that die between the ages of 30 and 35, death takes no less than 235 divorced men between the same ages. The corresponding mortality figure for each class is 197 and for widowers 226.

On the other hand, marriage is dangerous to women.

For each 100 women that die between the ages of 30 and 35, the mortality rate for women is as follows: single, 72; widowed, 65; divorced, 79; married, 121.

New Feature Added To Hanover Zoo; Teach Bear Tricks

HANOVER.—To the ordinary attractions of a zoological garden a new one has been added in the Hanover Zoo. The young lions and bears here there are being taught various tricks.

The lions in particular, in charge of an experienced tamer, have made rapid progress, but training the bears is more difficult.

However, six young polar bears and a brown bear already form pyramids, "shoot the chutes," wheel baby carriages and perform other stunts that have greatly increased the number of visitors to the zoo.
